

Join Greg Albrecht for a new and revolutionary kind of church service. You'll find the freedom of authentic, pure and genuine Christianity—Christianity without walls or denominational barriers—Christianity without humanly imposed rules, rituals and regulations. In short, you'll find Christianity Without the Religion—a fresh, new approach to weekly worship. Here's just a sample of what you'll experience with Christianity Without the Religion.

The Gift of Time. Join us at the table of the Lord of eternity. His loving provision helps us understand that our life on earth is not all there is. In Jesus God embraced time, becoming one of us, in our time. Jesus will help each of us to tell time, to understand time, to use time and to see beyond time. Week of December 2.

Let It Be. Mary's pregnancy was different from that of many other women in the Bible—Mary was not desperately hoping to become pregnant. The most momentous birth in all of history is a departure from other biblical birth stories. Week of December 9.

The Visitor. Christmas is a time when we became a "visited planet." God in the Person of Jesus personally delivered a message for each one of us. The message? God is for you. He's your friend. He's on your side. God's favor rests on you. Week of December 16.

Recognizing God. We are invited to a special Christmas feast at the table of the Lord. Come worship him and come receive him! The birth of Jesus signaled a new way of doing things. The gospel insists that our relationship with God is all about what he does—it's all about him. But sadly, many are convinced by religion that their relationship with God is all about them. Week of December 23.

The Safety of Religion—OR The Risk of Relationship? Are you settling for religious bondage when you could have freedom in Christ? Are you choosing the mirage of safety in religion—or are you accepting Jesus and the risk, as we humans might see it, of having a relationship with God? Week of December 30.

Dear Greg,

My wife and I want you to know that PTM is an ongoing blessing to us. The spiritual food we receive from Plain Truth magazine and now the recent online worship services is greatly valued. We thank you for your efforts and labors on behalf of the gospel of Jesus Christ. We especially appreciate PTM's concept of "Christianity Without the Religion." PTM is an important part of our Christian lives, and we wish to thank you and your staff for helping to "feed the flock." It is our intention to continue supporting PTM financially and prayerfully. We think it is an honor to be able to help in such a wonderful ministry.
