

Dear Greg and Plain Truth staff:
I can't tell you what a comfort it was to read your November cover story "Eternal Torture—Divine or Human Vengeance?" As a pastor, for the last seven years I have been struggling with the issue of hell, and I can tell you that one has to be careful about talking about this topic. You can get into all kinds of trouble! I have had people come to me, like Nicodemus did to Jesus, "at night," attempting to ensure that no one else would know that they were wondering about this everburning hell of divine torture. I hope you don't mind if this letter is signed "Anonymous"—but I assure you that this is a real and troubling issue for many. Thanks for exposing this topic to the Light.
