Bad News Religion: The Virus That Attacks God's Grace. A guide to the deadly virus of religious legalism—the idea that you can do something that will make God more pleased with you. Bad News Religion shows you how to spot legalism and tells you how to identify healthy, Christ-centered, grace-based Christianity.

Revelation Revolution: The Overlooked Message of the Apocalypse is a revolution in the way that many have been trained and taught to study and understand biblical prophecy. Revelation Revolution is a grace-based, Christ-centered exploration of the book of Revelation.

Between Religious Rocks and Life's Hard Places provides 101 answers to questions Greg has received at "Ask Greg" (www.ptm.org). You'll find sound, Christ-centered teaching minus mangled prooftexts in these thoughtful responses.

Unplugging From Religion...Connecting With God gives readers courage, confidence and faith to break free from the tyranny of religion and accept the intimate relationship God offers. Vital help for those who are or have been shackled to legalistic religion—and who are ready to transition to the freedom of God's amazing grace.

Spiritual Soup for the Hungry Soul is a collection of 48 carefully selected messages Greg has previously given at Christianity Without the Religion. Greg will pique your spiritual appetite with a rich and satisfying Christ-centered meal, offering plenty of food for thought, with a special emphasis on God's love and grace.

Greg Albrecht is president of Plain Truth Ministries, editor-in-chief of Plain Truth magazine and teacher at Christianity Without the Religion (www.ptm.org). Born in Kansas, Greg spent his early childhood in Texas before moving to California.

Greg and his wife, Karen, live in Southern California, as do their married daughter, married son and their families. The Albrechts enjoy five grandchildren, who remind them of what it means to be a precious and loved child of God.
