

SHOULDN'T CHRISTIANS HAVE ALL THE ANSWERS?

Maybe in a perfect world. In real life, though, we can come across as tongue-tied instead of faith-filled. Speaking truth gets rough when we're unsure what we believe. Or why. Sometimes, even if we know, we have a hard time explaining it to others. That's being trapped Between Religious Rocks and Life's Hard Places. Thankfully, this easy-to-use resource offers 101 meaty responses to tough questions you'll field from family, friends, and co-workers. Or even yourself.

Greg Albrecht doesn't know it all or pretend to. But he never backs away from heartfelt dialogue on subjects as diverse as cremation, homosexuality, church-hopping, mental illness, and cohabitation.

Find out once and for all the answers to issues small and large. At the heart, these 101 questions and answers provide fodder for thoughtful inquiry. Scriptural enlightenment minus mangled proof texts. Best of all, Albrecht doesn't condescend, doesn't assume, but just responds to authentic concerns with timely answers.

Greg Albrecht is the president of Plain Truth Ministries, editor-in-chief of Plain Truth magazine, and pastor of the exclusively online church, Christianity Without the Religion (www.plm.org). Born in Kossau, Greg spent his early childhood in Texas before moving to California. He married Karen while living in England, where their two children were born. Greg was a faculty member and college administrator before beginning his media ministry.

Greg and Karen live in Southern California, and are thankful that their married daughter and married son do as well. The Albrechts enjoy four grandchildren, who remind them of what it means to be a precious and loved child of God.
