

What Others Are Saying About...
UNPLUGGING FROM RELIGION
...Connecting with God

Greg Albrecht has been so utterly ruined by the grace of God that he'll never be any good for religion again! In a church-world-gone-berserk over programs and personalities this book is a voice calling us back to the Person of Jesus Christ. If the Apostle Paul were to write a letter to the legalistic Galatians today, I would imagine it sounding much like Unplugging From Religion...Connecting With God.

—Steve McVey, author, President of Grace Walk Ministries

Wow! Unplugging From Religion... will blow away your religious suppositions and bring you into the presence of the real God who loves you more than you could know. Read this book and give it to all your friends.

—Steve Brown, author, professor at Reformed Theological Seminary (Orlando), Founder and President of Key Life Network

As Greg says so eloquently in this exciting new book, authentic Christianity is not about deeds, creeds or personal behavior. It is about God and his unconditional love for us. This book will help unplug you from religion and connect with a dynamic and vital faith.

—Millard Fuller, author, Founder, Habitat for Humanity; Founder and President, Fuller Center for Housing

Greg Albrecht is one of today's leading voices speaking out against "Christ-less religion." He articulates this message well and points the reader to the Cross, the empty tomb and our risen Lord—calling us to new life in Christ—away from hollow forms of religion.

—Ruth Tucker, author, former professor at Calvin Theological Seminary and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

Greg Albrecht is president of Plain Truth Ministries, editor-in-chief of Plain Truth magazine and pastor of the exclusively online church, Christianity Without the Religion (www.ptm.org). Born in Kansas, Greg spent his early childhood in Texas before moving to California.

Greg and his wife, Karen, live in Southern California, as do their married daughter, married son and their families. The Albrechts enjoy five grandchildren, who remind them of what it means to be a precious and loved child of God.
